SCOUTS SHOW DADS GROWTH AT DINNER

Speakers Stress Fatherly Aid and Good Citizenship.

MANY SCOUTS ADVANCE

Brynwood Manor Inn rang with the cheers of the Boy Scouts last Friday evening, when they were hosts to their fathers and a few guests at dinner and a regular scout meeting.

It was "Our Dads" night in the chronicles of the local scouts. Forty-nine boys brought their fathers with them. In a few instances, where the fathers were unable to attend a "substitute" took his place. In all, there were 106 men and boys present.

Dinner was served in the main dining hall. Seated at the "head table," with E. P. Dold, who presided, were His Honor, the Burgess, Henry A. Frye, ex-Senator Fletcher W. Stites, and Carl B. Metzger, president of the Narberth National Bank. Grouped around them, and at small tables that filled the large dining hall were the boys and their fathers.

The Burgess, in addressing the boys, stressed the importance and value of good citizenship. Having been president of the Fathers' Association of the Scouts he was able to point out to the fathers some of the ways in which they could assist in the work that is being carried on in "The Cabin" with the boys.

Mr. Stites, in his customary eloquent and forceful manner, spoke feelingly to the boys about the great importance of keeping their working capital unimpaired. The simile on the part of the boys was not financial resources, but working capital in the form of clean thoughts, good health, high ideals and a willingness to do right. Character and reputation are the foundations on which to build, and these he urged the boys to guard with great care.

Explains Court of Honor.

Mr. Metzger represents Narberth on the Main Line Boy Scout "Court of Honor." This is the tribunal before which the scouts appear for examination as to their proficiency in the various phases of scouting in order to secure merit badges.

His talk was enthusiastically received by the boys, who were told in considerable detail about the workings of the "Court." He urged them to greater effort in their work, and expressed the hope that at each of the monthly sessions of the "Court" the Narberth troop would be represented. Keith Parkes passed the "Physical Health" examination at the last sitting of the "Court."

E. R. Carlson, Scout Executive of Delaware and Montgomery counties, paid a glowing tribute to the local troop, with particular reference to the Fathers' Association, which he said was the pioneer one in scouting. Several others, patterned after the Narberth Association, have since been organized.

W. Russell Green, representative of the American Legion, who is serving as a member of the Troop Committee, announced during the evening that the Legion procured a large American flag, which will be presented to the Boy Scouts at a meeting of the Legion on Monday, April 25.

LEGION DRIVE READY

Plans for the American Legion's every-house canvass for members were perfected at the regular monthly meeting of the Narberth Post last Monday night.

On Monday, April 3, at 7 P. M., the members engaged in the drive will gather at the Legion room. From there they will call at every home in the borough. The campaign will last until Friday when another meeting will be held to go over and compare results.

It is desired that anyone eligible to membership will not wait to be invited but call up the nearest member and volunteer.

LUTHERANS HONOR RETIRED MINISTER

Dr. and Mrs. McLinn Ave Praised at Farewell Reception.

SUCCESSOR IS CALLED

Members of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, Narberth, tendered a farewell reception in their church Wednesday evening to their departing pastor, Dr. M. E. McLinn, and to Mrs. McLinn. A formal program was rendered followed by refreshments.

A very fitting address reflecting the high esteem in which Dr. McLinn is held in this community, the place he has won for himself in the hearts of the Philadelphia ministers, and the mammoth work he has accomplished in organizing a congregation in addition to building a beautiful church edifice in the four years he has been here, was delivered by Rev. Clifford Hays, of Philadelphia. Prayers were offered by Rev. Robert Wolfe, acting pastor of the church, and by Rev. H. C. Shindle, Narberth, retired Lutheran minister.

The congregation additionally manifested its appreciation of Dr. and Mrs. McLinn by presenting to Mrs. McLinn a beautiful platinum pin and to Mr. McLinn a traveling bag, which he might use in making return visits to Narberth.

Dr. and Mrs. McLinn leave Narberth next week to take up their residence with their daughter in Princeton, N. J.

Rev. Robert E. Wolfe has been appointed acting pastor of Holy Trinity Lutheran Church until June 1, when the new pastor, Rev. C. A. Senft, from the Gettysburg Theological Seminary takes charge.

WOMEN HEAR DEMOCRACY OUTLIVES DICTATORSHIPS

Lecturer Tells Community Club Dictators Are Transient.

The Women's Community Club held its regular bi-weekly meeting in Elm Hall, Tuesday, March 29. Under the suggestive title, "The Shortening Day of the Dictators," Mr. Warwick James Price set forth his disagreement with H. G. Wells, who insists that democracy has proved a failure.

Briefly, Mr. Price's thesis was that although dictatorships have been set up in nine countries during the last ten years, democracy never was so strong in history as today. In proof he asserted that the great majority of nations have not only retained their constitutional forms, but have become increasingly democratic in spirit; and, in addition, six of the nine "dictated" countries are perceptibly moving toward true popular government. Mr. Price developed his theme with such a wealth of detail, enlivened with anecdote, that it was indeed a "feast of reason."

The Hostess Committee included Mrs. R. C. Williams, chairman; Mrs. Walter Shaw, Mrs. H. V. Whitney, Mrs. F. C. Van Auken, Mrs. William Newman and Mrs. W. J. Loughlin.

BILLY HEINDEL

Billy Heindel, 8-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Heindel, of 38 Norbrook Park, died at noon on Wednesday at Hahnemann Hospital of meningitis. Services were held at All Saints' Church, Wynnewood, on Friday.

The growing attendance which has marked the meetings of the Narberth Board of Trade since the formation of the body was continued Monday night at the March supper. Upwards of fifty business men were present at the Brynwood Manor Inn.

Advertising was the topic of the meeting, and two capable speakers addressed the Narberth merchants on the phases of that difficult problem which affected their businesses. Robert Fellows Wood, Councilman and advertising manager of the Autocar Company, was the first speaker, followed by Morton Gibbons Neff, of Wynnewood avenue, president of the Poor Richard Club of Philadelphia.

Mr. Wood divided the advertising fields of Narberth into two groups: "Our Town" and direct-mail. "Your local paper is the best and most economical medium," he said. "Every Narberth business man can profitably make use of its columns."

In expanding on the function of the local paper and its attitude towards its readers and advertisers Mr. Wood made a plea for the publication of all the news whether or not someone's "ox was gored" in the process. Many projects, he stated, need the air of full publicity.

The speaker urged unanimous support by the business men of the Buy-in-Narberth campaign being conducted in the advertising columns. It is his opinion that the education of the people to the advantages of Narberth's complete shopping center will aid everyone.

Mr. Dunne's advertising for the Narberth Coal Company was held as a brilliant example of direct-mail publicity. By means of a small house organ, postcards, folders, etc., the coal company has kept in constant touch with its customers and prospects over a wide radius. Skillfully planned and attractively printed, the mail advertising has tied in well with the newspaper copy.

A sweeping condemnation of so-called "program" and "donation" advertising featured Mr. Wood's talk. He described this type of expense as money thrown away and criticized promoters of such devices for contributing to what has become an unmitigated evil.

The experience of the Autocar Company was quoted, in which a careful analysis of expenses some years ago showed that many hundreds of dollars were being lost through the growth of donation advertising. Mr. Wood recommended a concerted campaign by merchants to cut down this item.

In particular did the out-of-town promoter come in for criticism. "I am not speaking against local churches and clubs who ask merchants for support," Mr. Wood

ROBERT GEORGE KEIGHTON

Robert G. Keighton, aged 70, died Monday night at the home of his son, Rev. Robert E. Keighton, 216 Avon road. The end came unexpectedly. Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the home. Interment was in the Arlington Cemetery. The officiating clergyman was Dr. Milton G. Evans, president of Crozier Theological Seminary, where Rev. R. E. Keighton, pastor of the Baptist church, studied.

Born in Camden, Mr. Keighton resided in Philadelphia for many years, and later in Collingswood, N. J., where his sister, Mrs. Walter C. Hammar, now lives. For the past three years he has been employed by an Ardmore printing concern. He was a printer and publisher most of his life.

Surviving him are two brothers and two sisters, his wife and son. The many friendships contracted throughout his long and active life demonstrated his lovable nature, his ability to win friends, his kindness, interested sympathy and quiet enthusiasm.

CELEBRATES GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Shinn, of 202 Woodbine avenue, celebrated their golden wedding anniversary last Wednesday evening, with over 80 guests present from all over the United States. The house was beautifully decorated in gold, with Dan Cupid still in evidence. Mr. and Mrs. Shinn have lived in Narberth for 17 years. They have two sons, George H. Shinn, of Overbrook, and William E. Shinn, of Trenton, and two grandchildren.

SPRING LOITERED

After its sudden and premature appearance a few weeks ago, spring turned shy last week. She coyly waited around the corner, while winter roared down the road.

Main Line weather observer, Charles Decker, reports that for the week ending Tuesday night the unseasonable weather reduced the previous week's temperature excess of 111 degrees to 51 degrees since March 1, making a deficiency compared with the same time last year of 83 degrees.

Fifty-two degrees was high for the week, and 26 was the lowest temperature recorded. The barometer was high at 30.36 and low at 29.85. Precipitation for the week was .19 of an inch, and for the month, 1.09 inch.

BEGIN CUT OVER OF BORO PHONES

Company Starts Switching of 900 Subscribers to Cynwyd Exchange.

NEW ARDMORE CABLE

A start was made this week by the Bell Telephone Company in its plans to switch over 900 Narberth telephones to the Cynwyd exchange. The work will be done in stages and the first batch of Narberth phones were put on the Cynwyd exchange this week. The whole change-over, it is expected will be completed before June.

Letters notifying Narberth subscribers of the change were sent out the past week by the Bell Company. Some of the borough subscribers were also informed that their numbers would have to be changed and were told the new numbers that they had been allotted.

Narberth phone calls up to this month are handled through the Ardmore exchange. The change is being made to relieve congestion at Ardmore. The Cynwyd exchange, a new building less than three years old, now serves but little over 3000 stations in Bala, Cynwyd, Merion and West Manayunk and still has room for much expansion.

RADIO ARTISTS WILL SING FOR WOMEN'S CLUB

Popular Entertainment Will Benefit Building Fund.

Radio artists will sing Tuesday evening in Elm Hall to swell the building fund of the Women's Community Club. The concert will have many novel features, performed by a group of talented performers, known throughout the country.

Loretta Kerk's brilliant solos and accompaniments and Dorothy Fox's soprano solos will be heard not over the radio this time, but from the stage. "Listeners-in" will have the opportunity of seeing as well as hearing the artists.

Also scheduled are the well-known radio male quartette: Edny Lewis, manager of WFI; Bernard Poland, Philadelphia tenor; John Vandersloot, basso announcer, and Harold Simonds, baritone of radio fame.

Music and readings will cover a wide range of humorous, sentimental, operatic and classic renditions.

Tickets at 75 cents may be secured in advance at Davis' or by mail from Mrs. Robert H. Durbin, 231 North Narberth avenue. It is expected that Elm Hall will be well filled. Music lovers are urged to buy tickets now.

NEW BUSINESS BUILDING

Two applications for permits covering building on the border of Narberth were filed with the Lower Merion authorities during the past week.

W. D. and H. T. Smedley have filed a permit in the township building at Ardmore for construction of a business building costing approximately $18,000, to be erected at the northeast corner of Gordon and Montgomery avenues. A. E. Wohlert, nurseryman, is the owner.

Robert Littler, Jr., radio man occupying the 14 Montgomery avenue store of the Rittenhouse Arcade, has filed a permit for an advertising sign, costing approximately $100.

W. P. DAVIES IS NEW TENNIS HEAD

Was Elected at Adjourned Meeting. Plan Drive for Members.

WANT NEW CLUBHOUSE

At the adjourned annual meeting of the Narberth Tennis Association held in the Narberth National Bank Building on Wednesday evening, March 30, W. P. Davies was unanimously elected president of the club for the coming tennis year. He will be supported by the following officers: H. C. Fenno, vice president; D. J. McTigue, secretary, and A. C. Staples, treasurer.

The above officers, including J. G. Allen, H. F. Kairer and H. R. Paige, will constitute the Board of Governors for the year. There were also two trustees elected to fill out unexpired terms on that board, W. D. R. Evans (the retiring president of the club) and F. G. Warner.

In taking over the reins, President Davies promised to do everything in his power for the benefit of the club, and the members in turn have pledged their unqualified support.

The club will not place any team in the tennis league this year. In view of the demand for the use of the courts on week-ends, it was thought that this action would be good news to the senior members who are not able to take advantage of the tennis privileges during the week, as no courts will be tied up by the team for practicing or matches.

Application will be made this year for the holding as usual of the Pennsylvania Clay Court Championship at Narberth and it is anticipated that this will be granted. The exact dates for this tournament will be announced later.

In order that as little time as possible will be lost in getting things started this year, the new Board of Governors went into session immediately following the meeting of the club, and the following chairmen of the standing committees were appointed: Grounds, H. F. Kairer; tournament, W. P. Davies; auditing, W. Y. Shaw; membership, H. R. Paige; entertainment, J. G. Allen, and publicity, H. R. Paige.

A renewed and vigorous effort will be made by the Membership Committee this year to beat all previous records in rounding up new members. With a satisfactory increase in the membership which will enable the club to meet its regular expenses without drawing on funds not set aside for the purpose, it was the sense of the meeting that a definite move can be made toward the building of a regular clubhouse. The new clubhouse will, of course, have the necessary facilities for the members to enjoy themselves during the winter months, such as squash courts, etc. This improvement can very readily be made a reality in a comparatively short time by an increase in membership which will warrant the club in taking on this additional financial undertaking.

The Grounds Committee plans to start immediately to get the courts in shape for playing, and the opening date will be announced later.

Why not join the club this year? Any member will be glad to see that you are supplied with an application blank.

CARDS AND TEA

Next Friday afternoon, from 1.30 to 5 o'clock, the Mothers' Association of the Girl Scouts will give another "bridge and 500" at the scout headquarters in the Community Building.

A tempting light lunch will be served immediately on arrival, or later if desired. There will be a prize for each table. The mothers and guests will be privileged to make up their own tables.

Plans should be made well in advance in order to insure the desired accommodations. This can be done by consulting with Mrs. W. Elmer Titus, of 208 Chestnut avenue, president of the Mothers' Association. Tickets can be procured from the members of the girl scout troop.

A pleasant afternoon is in store for the mothers and friends of the Narberth Girl Scouts.

BOARD OF TRADE

continued, "although there is too much of this type of solicitation. It is the out-of-town printer, often unscrupulous, who should be defeated."

He told of promoters giving directories, programs, etc., "free" to local bodies in exchange for the privilege of using their names in soliciting. The promoter, from Philadelphia or a nearby town, pocketed the profits, taken from the local business men who thought they were aiding a home institution.

Horse shows, fairs, conventions, etc., in out-of-town places, seeking to take money from Narberth in the form of "advertising" and donations, he said, should be promptly discouraged. More liberal donations to local bodies, instead of the responses to "begging" would then be possible.

Morton Bibbons Neff, widely-known authority on advertising problems, spoke more on the national aspect of the industry, touching briefly on Narberth's own problems. He did, however, give some sound advice to the merchants on the attraction of trade to this center.

Mr. Neff stated that three things appealed to him as assets to the borough: The new theater, the lack of synchronized traffic rules and common-sense parking.

"Nothing will drive away business quicker than complicated traffic rules and officious policemen," he said. "Ardmore is suffering from parking as in Philadelphia. If Narberth makes it easy for the shoppers she will benefit."

Mr. Neff condemned dishonest and misleading advertising, fake sales, "come-on" bargains, etc. He also voiced his disapproval of posters.

Ralph S. Dunne was in the chair in the absence of President Chris Koch. He introduced as guests John J. Carey, Charles V. Noel, Richard Gillis, C. B. Jones and William C. Hower, president of the Bryn Mawr Business Men's Association. Mr. Hower spoke briefly of the things his organization had been able to accomplish and invited Narberth's business men to visit the meetings of the neighboring club.

J. P. White told the members of an application recently made to the Zoning Board to reclassify part of the south side for business. The section in question is just south of the station and was formerly the grounds of the Tennis Club.

The entire south side is classed as residential according to the zoning law, and Mr. White declared that the creation of a business section there was unnecessary and would serve to hurt the existing trading section. The Board of Trade passed a resolution opposing any business section on the south side.

Philip A. Livingston reported for the Publicity and Slogan Committees, telling of the progress of the Buy-in-Narberth campaign, and of the treatment of Board of Trade matters in the columns of Our Town. He announced that a competition for a slogan and emblem was in progress, to close April 20.

Ralph S. Dunne, relieved as chairman by the arrival of Mr. Koch, reported on the interview last month with J. O. Hackenberg, of the Pennsylvania Railroad, who requested the committee to leave in his hands the task of bringing to the attention of other officials the need of new station facilities.

New members admitted included Howard J. Killian, Laurence Kirscht, Earl Dolan, Charles H. Smith, Chester G. Jones and John Neely.

A resolution was passed regretting the death of Councilman A. Perry Redifer and expressing condolence to the family.

QUICK BATTERY CHARGING

An up-to-date addition to the shop of Art's Garage has been made by Arthur Korthaus, recent purchaser of the former Windsor Garage. He has added an HB one-day battery charger to the equipment of his garage.

By means of this recently-developed charger unusually prompt battery service will be possible. Radio or auto batteries may be left at the garage in the morning and will be ready fully charged in the evening of the same day.

Mr. Korthaus has invited anyone interested to inspect this new invention with the safety and quality of its work.

The Tau Delta Phi Sorority will hold its regular spring dance at the Brynwood Manor Inn on Easter Monday. Those who have gone to other dances given by the sorority will know that a good time is again in store for them.

The FIRESIDE

Mr. Charles Bryhodes, entertained on his 80th anniversary with a party on Monday evening, March 28, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. W. M. Sibley, 507 Haverford road. Covers were laid for twenty-two guests, including Mr. and Mrs. J. Chappatte, Mr. and Mrs. George Weiland, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pulch, Jr., from Narberth, and Mr. and Mrs. T. Tucker, from Cynwyd. Mr. Bryhodes was the recipient of numerous gifts, telegrams and birthday cards. Also a huge cake, containing 80 candles, the gift of one of his guests.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church will meet on Monday, April 4, at 2:30 P. M., at the home of Mrs. Charles Harnden, Moreno road, between Gulf and Levering Mill road.

Mrs. Albert E. Hudepohl, of Narberth, entertained at bridge for her daughter, Mrs. Byron N. Rowland, of Pittsburgh, who, with her son, Byron N. Rowland, Jr., is visiting here. Several bridge parties have been held in honor of Mrs. Rowland.

Mrs. Albert H. Nulty, of Meeting House lane, has been confined to her home the past week because of illness.

Mrs. J. Carey, Miss Adele Carey, Miss Lillian Diamond and Mr. John V. Carey, all of Woodside avenue, motored to Atlantic City last week-end.

Mr. J. W. Darville, of Merion avenue, spent a few days in Atlantic City recuperating from a slight operation.

Mrs. H. C. Fenno, of Essex avenue, returned recently after a motor trip through New England and the New York States.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Haist, Mrs. George Gilpin, Jr., and Miss Florence Haist recently returned from a trip to Bermuda.

Mrs. A. J. Reinking, of Schiller avenue, entertained at luncheon and bridge yesterday.

Mrs. Samuel Laird, of Woodside avenue, gave a luncheon and bridge on Thursday, March 31, in honor of Mrs. Laura Snyder. Among the guests were: Mrs. E. Howes, Mrs. Will Lewis, Mrs. Ralph L. Rankin, Mrs. Herbert Wochling, Mrs. Archie Sparks, Mrs. Samuel McCarty, Mrs. Charles Walsh and Mrs. D. C. Miner.

It is to be regretted that Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Field are soon to leave Narberth for Springfield, Mass., whither Mr. Field's business has been transferred. Mrs. Field has been active in the Community Club and will be much missed.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. George MacIntosh, formerly of Grayling avenue, Narberth, will be interested to know that Ralph S. Dunne has received a long and interesting letter from them this week, stating that they were all well and enjoying life in Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Wales are moving on May 1, 1927, to Hirst Terrace, Oakmont, where they have bought a home. It is to be hoped that Mrs. Wales will not altogether desert the Community Club and the library, two organizations which have found her a valuable member.

Mr. and Mrs. James F. Donnelly have returned to the Main Line from Atlantic City and are living in Wynne-wood.

Mr. Thomas Edward Manning, Jr., of Hampden avenue, a student in the Moore School of Electrical Engineering, University of Pennsylvania, and a member of the Phi Kappa Tau Fraternity, will assume a leading role in the annual play to be given by the "Newman Club" at the Bellevue-Stratford May 6, 1927.

Here I am again! The girls are busy again. Now they are making little dresses for the Needlework Guild. On Tuesday the girls are going to the scout house.

Kuneki News.

Tuesday evening, March 29, saw the Kuneki Camp Fire Girls gathering at the home of Harriet Marsh for a ceremonial. Everyone except one member (who is ill) was there. We went through the regular ceremony and gave Dorothy Mackell the rank of "Wood Gatherer." Then each girl gave a unique pantomime of an honor earned. After that we played games.

We had our regular camp fire eats, which are cocoa, marshmallows and cake. The meeting then broke up and we scattered to the four winds.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

To the Editor of Our Town:

Your statement last week that Elbert Hubbard and not Emerson wrote the "Mousetrap" paragraph leads me to say that on page 268 of "The Heart of Emerson's Journals," recently published, is the following entry under date of February, 1855: "I trust a good deal to common fame, as we all must. If a man has good coin, or woods, or boards, or pigs to sell, or can make better chains or knives, crucibles or church organs than anybody else, you will find a broad, hard-beaten road to his house, though it be in the woods."

The "Mousetrap" is not there, but the complete idea is. Whether Hubbard ever saw this quotation is doubtful, as it is not found in Emerson's published works. He was accustomed to draw upon his journal entries in preparing a lecture or essay, but did not, it seems, ever make use of their entry. Possibly the same idea occurred to Hubbard and he used the mousetrap illustration, but priority of the thought is due to Emerson.

WM. HOYT COLEMAN.

To the Editor of Our Town:

The protest of the people living in Wynnedale road, ancient the swimming pool at Brynwood Manor, recalled to this writer's attention some speculative conversation between him and certain citizens of Narberth at the time of the purchase by the borough of the present borough playground tract. These conversations were renewed when plans for cleaning and filling in that tract were made and carried out. The conversations were about the possibility of converting a portion of the brooklet that courses through or across the ground into a wading pool for children in summer time and skating place in winter. Get the Chamber of Commerce of Narberth to consider the matter. It can be done.

F. W. E. STEDEM.

To the Editor of Our Town:

With further reference to my previous letter written in the interests of the drive for new supporting members, Narberth Fire Association.

The writer is of the opinion that the desired result could best be accomplished by having a large active soliciting membership committee. The writer's idea is that of a total committee of possibly thirty to thirty-five men or women, and each one of the committee to canvass a specified territory near his or her residence, say possibly twenty to canvass the north side of the town and fifteen the south side.

The writer is willing to work on the committee. I would appreciate anyone interested in this movement calling my residence, Narberth 1772, and when the desired number have reported their willingness definite plans can then be laid regarding the actual solicitation.

As stated in my previous letter, the result thus far is anything but satisfactory. There should be no trouble whatsoever in obtaining a minimum membership of one thousand members.

JAMES W. DARVILLE

To the Editor of Our Town:

Due to the use of the words "Local League of Women Voters" used in last week's "Our Town," in connection with announcing a lecture and political breakfast held at the Hanna Penn House, Philadelphia, some members of the Narberth League of Women Voters have asked "Why?" and were surprised at receiving no official notification of the event.

To correct this wrong impression the Pennsylvania League of Women Voters have a State League House at 1725 Spruce street, Philadelphia, where any meeting, sponsored by the league, which is a non-partisan organization, would be held and not at the recently opened Hanna Penn House, which is the headquarters for the Republican Women of Philadelphia.

A MEMBER.

(The Editor thanks the writer of this letter for setting him straight on the auspices under which the meeting was held.)

NEEDLEWORK GUILD MEETS

On Wednesday the Needlework Guild of Narberth met in an all-day session at the home of Mrs. Henry Rose with fourteen members present. Five new directors were reported, which proves the women are becoming interested in the work. Plans were made for the annual meeting to be held at the Bellevue-Stratford, May 5, 6 and 7.

Starting with the afternoon session on May 5 all programs are open to the public and as they are well planned with many notable speakers it is hoped many of the women from Narberth will avail themselves of this opportunity. The delegates will include the honorary president, Mrs. Frank Hewitt; Mrs. A. H. Durboraw, Mrs. John Brooks, Mrs. A. H. Mueller, Miss Laura Brown, Mrs. John A. Caldwell, Mrs. Henry Rose and Mrs. A. G. Follette.

Plans were made for a musical tea at the home of Mrs. L. M. Keim with home-made cakes and pastry to be sold. Later announcements will be made so that local members may keep the day free of other engagements. They are assured of a good program, refreshments and the chance to help a worthy cause.

LUNCHEON

Do not forget the luncheon the Evangel Circle of Kings Daughters will give Wednesday, April 6, at 12:30 at the home of Mrs. William D. Smedley, 227 Narberth avenue. We trust each member will feel it her duty to be present and bring as many friends as they can. This is to be a specially fine luncheon at 50 cents. TIME not WORDS proves a tire's value

EVERY NEW TIRE LOOKS GOOD.

Dunlops not only look good, but they make good—over rocks and gravel, and ruts and sand.

Thirty-nine years of experience has shown Dunlop how to design a tread that gives maximum traction and slow, smooth wear.

This Dunlop tread is the toughest development of rubber known. And this same tough tread-rubber is carried clear around the sidewall to give maximum protection against rut wear.

You get the full benefit of all this extra tread-mileage because each Dunlop is built with the famous trouble-free cable-twist Dunlop carcass, to provide the high-strength and elasticity so vital to long tire life.

We recommend you put Dunlops on your car

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

Wayne Troop, No. 131, Miss Beatrice Tees, captain, reports that the American Legion Auxiliary of Wayne has adopted the Wayne Girl Scout Troop, giving them the privilege of using the American Legion building for their meetings. The troop is very happy in its new quarters and very appreciative of its new benefactors' gift. February 18 the Oriole Patrol, under the leadership of Beatrice Moore, gave a small dance, to which they invited the other patrol leaders and some boys. Genevieve Cronan and her patrol have taken two hikes recently. On one hike, to Valley Forge, they covered 10.1 miles and on the other they covered 14 miles. Twenty merit badge examinations have been passed since February 14. The following girls have won badges: Zannie Moore—laundress, needlewoman, dressmaker and hostess; Augusta Baker—Citizen, scribe, hostess, cook, laundress, needlewoman and homemaker; Beatrice Moore—Dressmaker, Sidney Greiner—Citizen, hostess and cook; Roberta Bailey—Citizen, Rose Talley—Citizen, Lucille Beatty—Citizen, Jane Adams—Citizen, Helen Rigg—Citizen. Seven of the troop assisted during February and March in the work being done at the Neighborhood League of Wayne. They were: Helen Rigg, Beatrice Moore, Anne Morris, Marie Walters, Anna Fried, Beatrice Abbs and Eleanor Burnham.

Would any first class or golden eagle, between the ages of 15 and 17 years, like to go to the international camp, which is to be held at Geneva, Switzerland, August 5 to 16? Two girls who have been active scouts for at least three years are to be chosen from each region. They sail July 23, spend two days in Paris, and go to Foxlease Park, England, where the first international camp was held, for two days after the international camp, arriving in New York August 29. The approximate cost for each Girl Scout would be $450. Will any Philadelphia Girl Scout who would care to go write in immediately to the office, telling of her scout record and if she could finance any part of the trip.

Other parts are: Handsome Harry Squunk, the conductor; Joseph Boyd, of Ardmore; Sir Gilbert Darwood, the villain, E. Save This Ad-Worth 1⁰⁰ to YouSee This Amazing
New Shaving Invention
-KRISS-KROSS StropplerMost Surprising Device Ever Patented. Makes A Single Razor
Blade Last Indefinitely And Gives You The Coolest, Slickest
Shaves of Your Life. Nothing Like It Ever Seen Before!

FREE Demonstration—No Obligation

Here is a chance for you to see for yourself the astonishing shaving invention the whole country is talking about.
(Probably you've already read about it in Liberty, Colliers and other big magazines.)Kriss-Kross is so surprising that it is hardly fair to call it a stroppler. It is really a superstroppler or blade-resurrector. Fits any kind of safety razor blade (except Durham-Duplex) andactually gives you hundreds of shaves where you only got one before. It's positively sensational.
Kriss-Kross strops your blade with a diagonal stroke—just like a master barber. Entirely automatic. Eight "leaky leather grooves" do the trick in 11 seconds with an accuracy it takes a barber years to learn.
But that's not all. Kriss-Kross strops from heavy to light. It's absolutely uncanny how the pressure gets lighter and lighter every stroke until an automatic jig dices up and tells you the blade is ready with the keenest cutting-edge steel can take.Kriss-Kross will give you the most wonderful shaves of your life. No more expense and bother about remembering to buy new blades!
No more "taking" with dull ones! Keen, velvet-smooth shaves forever—that's Kriss-Kross!

The Narberth National Bank is not a mighty, chilling, urban institution, terrifying to all but the captains of industry. It is, we believe, a friendly bank.Above all, we wish to be friendly with the members of the younger generation. No matter how little a child wishes to deposit—no matter how trivial the financial problem—we want the confidence of the children and their parents.A community bank, directed by friends and neighbors, can be a great influence in establishing habits of thrift and financial consciousness. We look forward to this opportunity:

PENN BAND GIVES
VARIED CONCERTPlays to Audience of 1500
Under Baton of Vogel at Ardmore.

College music, though not "collegiate," invaded the Main Line Sunday afternoon, when the University of Pennsylvania Band gave a varied concert at the Ardmore Theater.

The concert was held under the auspices of the Main Line Orchestra Association, whose orchestra is led by the conductor of the Penn Band—Adolph Vogel. Nearly fifteen hundred people, the largest audience of the season, heard the program.

"Lustspiel" overture, by Keler-Bela followed by Handel's "Largo" and Strauss' "Blue Danube Waltz". In these familiar numbers a splendid tonal balance was maintained, with the higher-pitched instruments giving a feeling of orchestral continuity.

Clyde R. Dengler, also tenor of the Penn Glee Club, was soloist at this concert. His first group included "O Vision Entrancing" from "Esmeralda"; "Song of Joy" by Doudy and "The Open Secret" by Woodman. His pleasing tone, excellent control and stage bearing brought forth sustained applause.

Two encores were given, "Homings" by Del Riego and "Duna" by McGill.

The band, under the baton of Robert C. Poole, student leader, offered four vigorous and well-played numbers. They were "Fight on Pennsylvania", the athletic field song, written several years ago by David Zoob, the Triumphant March from "Aida", "Hail Pennsylvania" and Sousa's "Stars and Stripes Forever". The latter number was given a truly hair-raising reading, the loudness of which was astonishingly well absorbed by the auditorium.

Mr. Vogel resumed the dais for the concluding numbers, the "Pilgrim's Chorus" from Tannhauser, "The Dragon Fly" by Strauss and von Suppe's "Light Cavalry" overture. The conductor followed a distinctly orchestral technic in reading these numbers, and was successful in securing good balance save in parts of the Tannhauser number where the secondary instruments had a tendency to drown out the melody.

Sixty pieces, about half of the entire band, participated. The selection of instruments and proportions was skillfully done, with the result that offensive loudness or "clashing" were absent.

"DAD'S NIGHT" DINNER

Mr. Dold presented to the fathers each member of the Fathers' Association, the Troop Committee, Scoutmaster Ben J. Cook and his three assistants, John Wilson, "Jim" Hutchinson and Baird Caldwell.

The work of the organization was then outlined in detail, which, according to the applause, met with the hearty approval of those present. The matter of week-end camping activities was explained in detail and then laid before the fathers for action.

When the vote was taken, this activity was given the unanimous approval of the fathers, and the manner in which the boys entered into a cheer of thanks left little doubt as to what they thought of the action of their "dads" in approving of the proposition. Stage Regular Scout Meeting.

Adjourning from the dining hall to the spacious reception room, the scouts conducted a regular session, in which nine boys were made "tenderfoot" scouts, twelve advanced to "second-class" scouts and four became "first-class" scouts. The dramatized ceremony was used in initiating the "tenderfoot" scouts, after which Walton M. Wentz, vice president of the Fathers' Association, called each scout to the front and with fitting remarks about each of the three groups of scouts presented each with the medal emblematic of the class in scouting to which he had been advanced.

The following scouts were advanced: To "tenderfoot" scout: H. Thompson, G. Hopkins, E. Madara, "Dick" Butler, G. Shroader, "Dick" Jones, W. Blake, John Whitney and Ned Bartlett.

To "second-class" scout: Keith Monnington, R. Sigel, W. Zindell, H. Loos, A. Loos, Gordon Wolf, B. Mellor, "Dick" Heckle, J. O'Keefe, "Bob" Graham, F. Robb and James Bailey.

To "first-class" scout: William Harris, Howard Whitney, William Nader and Philip Nickerson.

A few exhibition games were played, such as leg wrestling, hand wrestling and "brother, brother, where art thou?" "Taps" were sounded by Chief Bugler Keith Parks, whereupon the meeting adjourned by repeating the scout oath. Vestus Spindler led the cheering throughout the evening. There were cheers for "Our Dads," the American Legion, the regular scout cheer and cheers for the week-end camping.
